Edinburgh, "the grey metropolis of the North," need fear no rivals in its claim to be the most picturesque city in the United Kingdom. Viewed from any point the prospect reveals such variety in landscape and such beauty of colour that it provoked Washington Irving to state "Of all cities in the modern world, Edinburgh is the most beautifully situated."

Dear Ma. Can not come home before Tuesday. Bert was cleaning house so she never got at my things until Wed. But I must have a little more money please sent me some not later than Sat- a bout 5 dollars Barbour was a little better yesterday. P.M.
